

Before Listening

BACKGROUND:

Peter was a follower of Jesus, one of his closest friends, whilst Jesus walked on earth. This audio play is set after Jesus' death and resurrection. Jesus has returned to heaven but He asked Peter and his other followers to keep sharing his message to others.

It has not been an easy journey, some followers of Jesus have been killed and Peter has just been put in prison. Yet something miraculous happened which you will discover as you listen to this audio play "From Pentecost to Prison."

The play was written by Tony Bower. It was performed and produced by Andrew McCracken with thanks to Riding Lights Theatre Company.

The play can be found on YouTube by searching "From Pentecost to Prison yoyotrust" or using this link:

After Listening

RESPOND:

Investigate:

Read more about Peter's story from the Bible. Look up the story when he escaped from Prison and was knocking on their door (Acts 12: 6-17) or any of Peter's memories of earlier events (see references on other page).

Create:

Think about the images or phrases that stood out to you as you listened and then create a piece of art or poetry to express one of those things.

THINK: Can you answer these questions as you listen?

Whilst Listening

DOODLE: Jot down any images that come to mind or phrases you want to remember as you listen.

Why did Peter think he was dreaming?

What is the name of Peter's brother?

How did Peter respond when Jesus asked him if he wanted to leave?

What did Jesus say to Peter when he thought he'd seen a ghost?

Where were they told to wait for the Holy Spirit?

How many people responded to his message on the day of Pentecost?

Who was going with Peter to the temple to pray?

As the numbers in the church grew what else grew?

How did Peter respond when he was put in prison?

Why were they so slow to answer the door?
