

Group 1

Who is there? A father, two sons, and some servants.

What is happening? The younger son is being given money by his father. The servants are working.

How do they feel? The younger son looks happy. The father looks sad. The older son looks cross.

Group 2

Who is there? A father, his son, some people having a party

What is happening? The son is at a party, drinking. You decide what the other people at the party are doing. Far away, the father is looking out into the distance.

How do they feel? The father looks sad. The son looks happy.

Group 3

Who is there? A young man, some pigs, a farmer

What is happening? The young man is feeding the pigs. The farmer is watching.

How do they feel? The farmer looks grumpy. The pigs are eating greedily. The young man looks sad.

Group 4

Who is there? A father, a young son, an older son, some people having a party.

What is happening? The father has his arm round his young son. They are surrounded by people having a party. The older son is standing slightly away from the group.

How do they feel? The father looks really happy. The young son looks surprised. The older son looks cross. The people at the party are happy.