

1 Wow-wow

- a. The doggie in the window
- b. A gibbon from Sumatra
- c. A girl in a pink cat suit

2 Saraband

- a. A headband worn by pirates
- b. A pop group led by a girl called Sara
- c. A stately Spanish dance

3 Timoneer

- a. A wart on the ear lobe
- b. Ship's lookout or helmsman
- c. An Irish boy who lives up the road

4 Yaffle

- a. To speak nonsense
- b. A green woodpecker
- c. An item of riding tackle

5 Skulpin

- a. A remedy for head injuries
- b. A type of hat pin
- c. Pikey fish with large head

6 Heriot

- a. A small boys chariot
- b. A fine or tax
- c. A Yorkshire vet

7 Conventicle

- a. A secret gathering
- b. A small gathering of nuns
- c. A small hole to allow air flow

8 Salamagundie

- a. A little known Eastern author
- b. A mixture of meat and chopped egg
- c. A Scots expression for 'Sally, pass my underwear'

9 Whigmaleerie

- a. An Irish banshee
- b. Trinket or gewgaw
- c. Lively jig danced by Scotsmen in wigs

10 Eglantine

- a. A sweet pudding made with eggs and gelatine
- b. A sweet briar rose
- c. A girls name